

The African Fruit Challenge

Christine says , "Read Handa's Surprise by Eileen Browne. You will learn about different African animals and African fruits. Can you make a fruit salad and taste all the different fruits? "

Research where the fruit in Handa's basket comes from. You could also look at the packaging and labels of fruit in your local shops. Where is the country of origin for each type? Can you plot these on a map? Draw a map showing Handa's route to see Akeyo and add pictures to show the events which took place along the way.
